

February

2015

1 - Read a new book to the kids in the morning or middle of the afternoon.	2 - Make a set of heart flowers with paper and popsicle sticks for the grandparents. Groundhog Day	3 - Play with flashlights and make a shadow puppet show.	4 - Rig the halls with crepe paper laser beams for a fun obstacle course.	5 - Make a DIY marble run from toilet rolls.	6 - Make a box of 3D paper hearts.	7 - Bake a batch of strawberry chocolate chip cookies... and eat a few, too!
8 - DIY heart wall decor out of sheet music.  Plan your meals for the week.	9 - Cut heart hats out of paper plates.  Read a novel for an hour.	10 - Make a rope art heart gift for someone you love.	11 - Weave a set of Danish heart baskets for teacher gifts. OR Cut the sweets today.	12 - Assemble a paper strip heart garland and string it in a prominent place at home.	13 - Make heart-shaped animals out of construction paper.	14 - Have heart bacon for breakfast before creating a post-it love wall heart. Valentine's Day
15 - Make paper crafts that fly. Fly them!	16 - Call someone you haven't spoken to in a while just because. President's Day	17 - Play with bubbles.	18 - Freeze plastic toys in tupperware filled with water. Let the kids hammer them out.	19 - Head outside for some water fun.  Enjoy the sunset today.	20 - Movie night in with the family or board games.	21 - Using old keys, make a DIY Key Wind Chime.
22 - Pancake breakfast!	23 - Recycle. Keep and wash plastic containers for cereals, snacks, and other dry foods.	24 - Get outside and ride your bikes. Play with sidewalk chalk!	25 - Finger paint. Hang the finished product up where the kids can admire it.	26 - Cut and fold paper. Create something new. Make a paper plate snake.	27 - Take a great family picture as you are.	28 - Paint old cookie sheets to create magnet play boards or chore charts.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Follow our "Valentine's Day" and "Feeling Crafty" boards on Pinterest.com/rgvmomsblog for more details!

rio grande valley
moms blog<sup>sm</sup>